

Terms of Service

OPPOHack follows the HackHub terms of service.

1. Terms

By accessing the website at <https://event.hackhub.com>, you are agreeing to be bound by these terms of service, all applicable laws and regulations, and agree that you are responsible for compliance with any applicable local laws. If you do not agree with any of these terms, you are prohibited from using or accessing this site. The materials contained in this website are protected by applicable copyright and trademark law.

2. Use License

1. Permission is granted to temporarily download one copy of the materials (information or software) on Inverse Technology Inc.'s website for personal, non-commercial transitory viewing only. This is the grant of a license, not a transfer of title, and under this license you may not:
 1. modify or copy the materials;
 2. use the materials for any commercial purpose, or for any public display (commercial or non-commercial);
 3. attempt to decompile or reverse engineer any software contained on HackHub's website;
 4. remove any copyright or other proprietary notations from the materials; or
 5. transfer the materials to another person or "mirror" the materials on any other server.
2. This license shall automatically terminate if you violate any of these restrictions and may be terminated by HackHub at any time. Upon terminating your viewing of these materials or upon the termination of this license, you must destroy any downloaded materials in your possession whether in electronic or printed format.

3. Disclaimer

1. The materials on HackHub's website are provided on an 'as is' basis. HackHub makes no warranties, expressed or implied, and hereby disclaims and negates all other warranties including, without limitation, implied warranties or conditions of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement of intellectual property or other violation of rights.
2. Further, HackHub does not warrant or make any representations concerning the accuracy, likely results, or reliability of the use of the materials on its website or otherwise relating to such materials or on any sites linked to this site.

4. Limitations

In no event shall HackHub or its suppliers be liable for any damages (including, without limitation, damages for loss of data or profit, or due to business interruption) arising out of the use or inability to use the materials on Inverse Technology Inc.'s website, even if HackHub or a Inverse Technology Inc. authorized representative has been notified orally or in writing of the possibility of such damage.

Because some jurisdictions do not allow limitations on implied warranties, or limitations of liability for consequential or incidental damages, these limitations may not apply to you.

5. Accuracy of materials

The materials appearing on HackHub website could include technical, typographical, or photographic errors. Inverse Technology Inc. does not warrant that any of the materials on its website are accurate, complete or current. HackHub may make changes to the materials contained on its website at any time without notice. However HackHub does not make any commitment to update the materials.

6. Links

HackHub has not reviewed all of the sites linked to its website and is not responsible for the contents of any such linked site. The inclusion of any link does not imply endorsement by Inverse Technology Inc. of the site. Use of any such linked website is at the user's own risk.

7. Modifications

HackHub may revise these terms of service for its website at any time without notice. By using this website you are agreeing to be bound by the then current version of these terms of service.

8. Governing Law

These terms and conditions are governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of Suite #1200, 555 W Hastings St, Vancouver, BC and you irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in that State or location.

Privacy Policy

It applies to visitors to this Site who view only public content (Visitors), to individuals participating in the hackathon and events (Attendees), and to individuals and organizations using HackHub for their events (Organizers). By viewing and using the HackHub service, visitors, attendees, and organizers agree to abide by this privacy policy.

GDPR

Attendees and Organizers from European Union should follow General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

CCPA

Attendees and Organizers from California should follow the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA)

Your privacy is important to us. It is HackHub's policy to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect from you across our website, <https://event.hackhub.com>.

Personal Information

We may ask for your personal information such as your name, email, location, contact details and payment details. The personal information we collect is relevant to providing you with a better user experience and service. You are free to refuse our request for your personal information, with the understanding that we may be unable to provide you with some of the desired services without this information.

Hackhub does not sell any personal information to third parties, however there will be certain circumstances where personal information will be shared: If you choose to provide your personal information such as links to social media, location, phone number, photos, etc the user content will be viewable by public. It is your responsibility to ensure that you only submit the information you wish to make public. If you wish to delete your personal information, please contact info@hackhub.com.

Documents uploaded such as resume will only be analyzed for its skill and work. We do not collect any personal information from the resume nor will we share it without the user's consent.

We will only retain personal information for as long as necessary to provide you with a service.

Cookies

A cookie is a small piece of data that our website stores on your computer, and accesses each time you visit so we can understand how you use our site and serve you content based on preferences you have specified. We use cookies to store your preferences and settings, fulfilling legitimate purposes. If you choose to block cookies on your browser, any preferences and setting controlled by those cookies will be deleted. We do NOT share your cookie to third parties for commercial purposes.

Third-Party Services

We may employ third-party companies and individuals on our websites - for example, analytics providers, content partners, or hiring partners. HackHub does NOT give any users' private information to third parties. However, in certain circumstances, third parties may request for users' private information to provide a service. Users may refuse to provide that information, with the understanding that they may be unable to provide you with some of the desired services without this information.

Security

We take security seriously, and do what we can within commercially acceptable means to protect your personal information from loss or theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use or modification. That said, we advise that no method of electronic transmission or storage is 100% secure, and cannot guarantee the absolute security of your data.

Links to Other Sites

Our website may link to external sites that are not operated by us. Please be aware that we have no control over the content and practices of these sites, and cannot assume responsibility for their treatment of your personal information. This privacy policy only covers our website and privacy practices.

Corporate Restructuring

If the Company is acquired by another company, sells substantially all of its assets, merges, or is reorganized, we expect that the private information we have collected from our users will be transferred to the acquiring entity or the surviving entity in a merger. All transfers will be subject to our commitments with respect to the confidentiality and privacy of personal information as stated above.

Changes to our Privacy Policy

At our discretion, we may change our privacy policy from time to time. Your continued use of this site after any changes to this policy will be regarded as acceptance of our practices around privacy and personal information.

Business Transfers

If we or our assets are acquired, or in the unlikely event that we go out of business or enter bankruptcy, we would include user information among our assets transferred to or acquired by a third party. You acknowledge that such transfers may occur, and that any parties who acquire us may continue to use your personal information according to this policy.

Data Encryption

Encryption is a process by which we use software to scramble personal information such as first and last name when users send personal information to HackHub. If users feel uncomfortable providing any information, please do not hesitate to contact info@hackhub.com.

Phishing

We do not and will not, at any time, send you a non-secure or unsolicited email, text message or telephone communication requesting your credit card information, sign-in details, identification numbers or other personally identifiable information. If you receive such an email or communication, please contact our support team immediately at info@hackhub.com

Ticketing System

We offer services to enable the payment by our Hackathon Organizers through our third party service providers, Stripe Payments Canada, Ltd. As with any third party service provider, we strongly encourage you to review the privacy policy of the Payment Service Providers, which can be viewed here to Stripe: <https://stripe.com/en-ca/privacy>. And to discontinue or not proceed with using the Payment Services offered through the Payment Service Provider if you do not agree to anything therein.

Cancellation and Refund

If an event needs to be cancelled due to event organizers, the deadline for event cancellation is two weeks before the event start date. HackHub will not be able to refund event tickets to the event organizer after the deadline. Tickets refund can be processed via HackHub Hackathon management system online. With written notice, participants will be able to cancel their tickets within 7 days after ticket purchase. Refund amount will not include online Stripe transaction Fee. Please see Stripe Policy here. Please reach out to your event organizer directly.

Managing, Reviewing and Updating Your Personal Information

All users may review, update, correct or delete the Personal Information in their HackHub Profile page by contacting us by email at info@hackhub.com or by directly editing under your profile within your account.
